

Disconnected

© Mario Vickram Sen, 15 Sep 2001

1

I telephoned this guy I know, 'cause we just had to speak.
I said, "I need that money back, I loaned to you last week."
He mumbled something but I couldn't hear just what he said.
And after some strange noise I heard, I realized the line was dead.

Chorus:

I got disconnected.
I got disconnected.
I got disconnected,
And I don't know what's going on.

2

I went to see this girl I know, I met her in the park.
She said, "why don't you drop on by to my place after dark."
But when she put her hand upon my knee I should have known,
That just as I was getting down... the husband would be getting home.

Chorus

Spoken during guitar solo:

Hey! What is this place?
It's dark in here.
Is that a light I see up ahead?
Someone get me the hell out'a here

3

I listen to the radio, to hear what they will play.
But I can't understand a word of anything they say.
There was a time when I was cool, and knew so very much,
But now my friends are telling me that I am out of touch.

Chorus